

Marilyn Jeske, BA

Marilyn is a graduate of Coker College with a Bachelor of Science degree in Business Administration and has more than 28 years' experience with the Medicare program. In her current role as Senior Provider Relations Representative in Palmetto GBA's Provider Outreach and Education department, she is the point of contact (POC) for outreach and education activities related to home health and hospice billing guidelines and regulations. Marilyn also has the responsibility to organize and develop educational materials, collaborating with providers and CMS regarding updates and changes to the Medicare program. With experience in Medicare communications, her expertise and knowledge enable her to explain complex statutes, legislative mandates, billing procedures, and policies in a manner easily understood by key stakeholders and program participants.

Charles Canaan, RN, MPH

Charles Canaan is a Senior Provider Education Consultant with Palmetto GBA. He has over 20 years of diverse nursing experience in a variety of healthcare settings. He spent eleven years in the United States Army. He currently provides education and consultation to Medicare providers.
